INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL: Send an original copy of the application and exhibits, at least 2,500 viable seeds, and $500 fee ($250 filing fee and $250 examination fee) to U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, Agricultural Marketing Service, Livestock, Poultry, Grain and Seed Division, Plant Variety Protection Office, National Agricultural Library Building, Beltsville, Maryland 20705. (See section 180.175 of the Regulations and Rules of Practice.) Retain one copy for your files. All items on the face of the form are self-explanatory unless noted below.

ITEM

- Give the date the applicant determined that he had a new variety based on (1) the definition in section 41(a) of the Act and (2) the date a decision was made to increase the seed.
- Give: (1) the genealogy, including public and commercial varieties, lines, or clones used, and the breeding method; (2) the details of subsequent stages of selection and multiplication; (3) the type and frequency of variants during reproduction and multiplication and state how these variants may be identified and (4) evidence of uniformity and stability.
- Give a summary statement of the variety's novelty. Clearly state how this novel variety may be distinguished from all other varieties in the same crop. If the new variety most closely resembles one or a group of related varieties:

 (1) identify these varieties and state all differences objectively; (2) attach statistical data for characters expressed numerically and demonstrate that these differences are significant; and (3) submit, if helpful, seed and plant specimens or photographs of seed and plant comparisons clearly indicating novelty.
- Fill in the Exhibit C, Objective Description form, for all characteristics for which you have adequate data:
- Describe any additional characteristics that are not described, or whose description cannot be accurately conveyed in Exhibit C. Use comparative varieties as is necessary to reveal more accurately the description of characteristics that are difficult to describe, such as, plant habit, plant color, disease resistance, etc.
- If "YES" is specified (seed of this variety be sold by variety name only as a class of certified seed) the applicant may NOT reverse his affirmative decision after the variety has either been sold and so labeled, his decision published, or the certificate has been issued. However, if the applicant specified "NO," he may change his choice. (See section 180.16 of the Regulations and Rules of Practice.)
- See section 42 of the Plant Variety Protection Act and section 180.7 of the Regulations and Rules of Practice.

Origin and Breeding History of Oslo

Pedigree: Sonora 64/Yaqui 50E//Guajalote/3/Inia/4/Ciano//Elgan/Sonora 64

History: Oslo originated from a single plant selection made in 1972 by Dr. A. Acosta from a CIMMYT F2 population. An F_4 bulk of this selection was first entered into yield trials in 1974 under the experimental number HS74183. This line has been in wide scale tests throughout the upper midwest spring wheat areas during the 1976 through 1980 seasons. It has been tested regionally in California during the 1979 and 1980 seasons.

From the original F2 plants, the F3 generation was grown in a 5 X 5 foot plot where five plants were pulled. Each of these plants were planted in a 5 X 5 foot plot as F4's in 1974. The best one of these plots was bulked and planted in a 5 X 23 foot plot in 1975. From this, 132 plants were selected and grown as plant rows at Berthoud in 1976. Succeedingly, 178 plants were selected for a plant row increase in 1977. Of these, 11 rows were discarded (6%) for having off-type beaks. From the 1977 purification increase plot, 200 plants were selected for plant row increases in 1978. Of these 200 plant rows only one row was discarded as being off-type. Breeders seed of Oslo originated from the 1977 and 1978 plant row increases. We consider Oslo to be stable and uniform with no off-type variants.

Exhibit B

Statement of Novelty

Oslo is most similar to Inia 66R but can be distinguished from Inia 66R on maturity and morphological characteristics.

Oslo is 2 days later heading than Inia 66R. Based on statistical methods, this maturity difference is very highly significant.

Oslo has oblique shoulder shapes while Inia 66R has square shoulders.

Additional Description of Oslo

Oslo is a day-length insensitive hard red spring wheat. It is a semi-dwarf with medium test weight and satisfactory bread making quality.

When grown in the northern plains of the U.S.A. it heads 6 days earlier than Era. When grown in California, Oslo heads 3 to 4 days later than Inia 66R.

Oslo has an erect juvenile plant growth habit. Plant color at boot stage is green with an erect flag leaf. The head shape is tapering, awned, with oblique shoulders and acute beaks. The seed of Oslo is hard, red, elliptical with a midlong brush and rounded cheeks.

Dear Mr. Westfall,

We understand that you are selling our Hard Red Spring Wheat variety, Oslo, as uncleaned wheat for seeding purposes in your area and that you have approximately 8,000 bushels for sale. Oslo is a variety which we own the patent on and is protected under the Plant Variety Protection Act of 1970 which is a federal law. Oslo can only be sold by variety name as a certified class of seed.

We believe that the 8,000 bushels of Oslo that you have available which you are selling is violating our patent rights. You may also be deriving sufficient income by the sale of this as a seed crop which puts you in the seed business on a part-time basis. We may seek to audit your records to determine if this is the case. In addition, you may also be in violation of state seed laws and the federal seed act.

We would ask that you cease and desist of these illegal sales of this variety immediately, otherwise we may be forced to take further action. Certified seed is available in good supply from any of our associates.

I have enclosed more information about Plant Variety Protection and strongly urge you to consider the implications you are exposing yourself to by conducting these sales.

Sincerely,

Keith O. Flynn Director of Cereals

Mr. Rex Kutschara Mr. Randy Blonion Rural Route Hay Springs, NE 69347

Gentlemen:

I have received information that you are advertising for sale, by variety name, seed of Oslo variety of spring wheat. Oslo wheat is protected under the U.S. Plant Variety Protection Act and also covered under the Nebraska Seed The certificate of variety protection states that this seed shall not be offered for sale or sold by variety name unless it is Certified Seed. Under the Nebraska Seed Law, it is also illegal to offer for sale or sell Oslo Spring Wheat by variety name unless the seed is certified by a Official Seed Certification Agency. In addition, infringement of a Plant Variety Protection Certificate makes the infringer liable to civil litigation by the certificate (patent) owner. For your information, the patent holder on Oslo Wheat is North American Plant Breeders.

Since the seed you are advertising is a protected variety and, based on our investigation, uncertified, I ask that you stop all advertisement and sale immediately!

I am enclosing a copy of a letter sent to you on September 11, 1984, regarding a similar violation. Therefore, I assume, you are familiar with the laws regarding protected varieties. I am also sending you information regarding seed labeling, testing, and permit requirements in Nebraska. recommend you become thoroughly familiar with these requirements if you plan to continue selling seed in the future. Since many of the wheat varieties are protected, I suggest you contact the Nebraska Crop Improvement Association, Plant Science Hall, Lincoln, Nebraska 68583, phone: (402) 472-1444 for further information about their certification program.

If you have any questions about Plant Variety Protection, Seed Law, or labeling, please contact me. I will be glad to help you.

Sincerely,
